

association of persons or corporations as they may deem suitable, for the removal, care and disposition of unlicensed dogs, or licensed dogs which may create a menace to the safety and security of the residents of Baltimore County, on such terms and conditions and for such compensation as may be agreed to by the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County and such persons, association of persons or corporations.

An. Code, 1924, art. 81, sec. 211. 1918, ch. 497, sec. 200. 1920, ch. 498, sec. 200.
1929, ch. 226, sec. 272 (p. 711).

1929, ch. 226, sec. 273 (p. 712). 1936 (Sp. Sess.), ch. 75.

331 Any person violating or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this sub-title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of the county in which he resides, or in the Circuit Court of said county, shall be fined a sum of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or shall be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. It shall be the duty of the State's Attorney, the Sheriff and the constables of the several counties of the State to prosecute all persons found violating the law by refusing to comply with its provisions. Provided that nothing in this sub-title shall apply to the City of Baltimore, or to the City of Cambridge.
